

Sedibeng TVET College strives for the academic success of its students which commences with participation in a well-planned and implemented orientation programme. The orientation programme aims to improve academic and social integration to enable students to make the transition from their previous experience to the world of a TVET College.

Students should always strive for academic success, and one way to achieve this is by participating in a well-planned and implemented orientation program. The goal of the orientation program is to enhance academic and social integration, helping students transition from their previous school experiences to the community of Sedibeng TVET College.

If you have any further questions or would like more information on Sedibeng TVET College's Orientation and Induction services, please do not hesitate to consult the Office of Student Support Services (SSS) on campus.
